

MILLER ASKED TO AGREE TO OPEN
BALLOT BOXES

Igoe Contest Committee Says He Should Consent
to Action if He Thinks Lead Will Be Increased.

MAYOR'S INDIRECT
ATTACK RESENTED

His Statement That Advisory Body Represents Gamblers and Political Strategists Assailed.

The committee supporting William L. Igoe's contest of the election of Mayor Miller last night issued a statement, in which it invited the Mayor to agree to open the ballot boxes and expedite the count on the basis of his own statement last Monday, that a recount would substantially increase the majority of $129 votes.

"If Mayor Miller believes as he says that an examination of the ballot boxes will increase his majority, he should in all candor attend, and without quibbling, consent to the opening of the ballot boxes," the statement reads. "It is sincere in his belief that this will at once confirm the validity of his title to the office and the ability of his election, which otherwise always will remain in doubt."

Supplication Proposed.
The suggestion was made that supplication might be entered into for Mayor Miller and the committee agreeing to a recount under conditions agreeable to both. The Igoe said in his statement, however, that he would use every personal resource and all assistance available to oppose the count.

The committee, of which Lawrence C. Daniel, former Circuit Attorney, is chairman, said further that Mayor Miller's original statement was wanting in good taste,
and was in violation of the rules
of the city. It also stated that
the committee's action placed him
in the position of being "used as
an instrument for a few professional
gamblers and political strategists
who have in view something more than the success of Mr. Igoe."

The committee's statement follows:

Attitude of Miller.
The indirect attack of Mr. Miller
on the committee advising Mr.
Igoe to contest his election is provoking of this reply. The attack is, in addition to its lack of tact, is wanting in good taste,
and is in violation of the rules
of the city. It also stated that
the committee's action placed him
in the position of being "used as
an instrument for a few professional
gamblers and political strategists
who have in view something more
than the success of Mr. Igoe."

Astor Home Sold to Man Who Came Here 24 Years Ago
And Started Life as Janitor

Benjamin Winter, Once Penniless Immigrant, Buys New York Property Assessed at $2,345,000—To Build $10,000,000 Hotel.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, May 6.—New York is to lose another landmark. Vincent Astor yesterday sold the Astor residence, at Fifth avenue and Sixty-fifth street, long one of the city's show places, to Benjamin Winter,
who came here penniless from Poland 24 years ago, and did odd jobs for his landlord to pay his first month's rent.

The entire property bought by Winter, including plots adjoining the Astor home, at 844 Fifth avenue and 5-7 East Sixty-fifth street,
recently was assessed at $2,345,000.
Winter, who began life in this country as a house painter and has become one of the largest owners of real estate in the city, plans to raise the Astor residence and erect a 20-story apartment hotel at a cost of $10,000,000.

Destruction of the Astor residence, representing the largest single lot available for improvement in Fifth avenue, will mark the passing of virtually the last of the homes of New York's original
"400." It was in the old Astor home, on the site of the Waldorf-Astoria, that Ward McAllister picked 400 socially prominent persons to attend a ball at the request
by Mrs. William Astor, Vincent Astor's grandmother, who felt the grand ballroom of her home would accommodate only that many guests.

STARKLOFF, JORDAN
AND PAPE RENAMED

Health, Hospital and Park Commissioners to Retain Their Positions.

Health Commissioner Starkloff, Hospital Commissioner Jordan and Park Commissioner Pape were reappointed today by Director of Public Welfare Salisbury.

Salisbury said that there would be no changes among the superintendents of the city's eleemosynary institutions, jail or workhouse, at least until an investigation of them is made.

Dr. Starkloff first became Health Commissioner under Mayor Kreis-mann and held over under the three administrations of Mayor Kiel. He has been in the office for 16 years.

Dr. Jordan has been in the Hospital and Health departments for about 30 years. Pape was City Forester for 11 years prior to his appointment under the second Kiel administration as Park Commissioner.

ONCE POOR IMMIGRANT BOY
GIVES $1,000,000 TO CHARITY

Donation of Frederick Brown of New York to Jewish Philanthropy in Trust Fund.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Frederick Brown, once a poor immigrant boy
from Czechoslovakia and now one of the best-known real estate operators in New York, last night announced the donation of $1,000,000
to the Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies of New York.

The donation by Brown was made in the form of a trust fund
to yield an annual sum of $50,000.
Together with this he announced that, beginning with the current year and until his death, he would give annually to the Federation $20,000 additional as his "annual membership contribution."

"The responsibility for aiding unfortunate Jews of the country
rests with those who have been successful," said Brown in announcing his gift. "The Federation, in order to be successful,
should be able to start each year
with a knowledge of the amount of money on hand and with the aid of the Jewish community to carry it through for the year."

Twenty years ago Brown came to America from Czechoslovakia with his father. He settled in Paterson, N. J., where he started a clothing retail clothing business.
His first real estate undertaking
in New York was under the guidance of his father, who had been a real estate man in his native land. It is said that since he moved into the real estate business he has bought and sold real estate in total of $500,000,000.

REPORTS BEING ROBBED, HELD FOR A HOLDUP

Negro Watchman at Garage Trapped by Ruse When He Visits Headquarters.

Zach Parish, negro night watchman at the Vaughn Garage, 218 Bayard avenue, went to police headquarters last night to see if he couldn't pick out a negro driving picture of a negro who had been in a Marmion car the same morning.

Parish's visit to headquarters
came about through a ruse employed by Detective Sgt. Ira Cooper, negro, who suspected something was wrong with the garage holdup.

About 5 a. m. Monday, Parish had called the police and reported that a very black and heavy-set negro, who entered the place, robbed him of $5 and, after binding him hand and foot, had picked out a Marmion and driven it away.

Half an hour earlier, however,
William Kammermeyer, a driver
for the N. S. R. H. B. Co., had reported that a negro driving a Marmion car had robbed him of $14
at Loughborough and Pennsylvania avenues. The holdup man, he said, was light brown, about 25 years old, an expert driver, and was wearing a gray cravat and coat and gray cap.

Detective Sergeant Cooper, noticed that this description fitted Parish to perfection and, believing
the two stories about Marmion cars robbed, he arranged for Kammermeyer
and Parish to come to headquarters
the same time. Kammermeyer identified the night watchman at first glance.

EX-CHAUFFEUR IS INDICTED FOR HUCKSTER'S DEATH

James Stillmann Charged
With Shooting Arthur
Keech in Front of St.
Louis Hotel, Feb. 20.

WITNESS CHANGED
ORIGINAL STORY

Confronted With Evidence
by Police, Man Who Saw Shooting Appears Before
Grand Jury.

Through the continued efforts of Detective Lieutenant Aylward,
James Stillmann, a former taxicab chauffeur, has been arrested and indicted for the murder of Arthur R. Keech, a huckster, in front of the St. Louis Hotel, Fourteenth and Chestnut streets, early on Feb. 20.

The police had been unable to make headway in solving the murder until yesterday.

The indictment was voted yesterday on the testimony of one witness, who previously had declared that Stillmann was not the man who shot Keech. This man, until yesterday, had asserted that it was a man standing next to Still-mann on the sidewalk who did the shooting.

Aylward Got Information.
Lieutenant Aylward learned that Still-mann, who is 27 years old and resides at 2614 Russell boulevard
and Louis Mandell, 24 or 3034
Dickson street, a chauffeur and police character, and other drivers
had been at a taxicab chauffeurs' hall at Jefferson and Lafayette avenues the night of February 19.

Mandell, it was learned, had been attacked in or near the St. Louis Hotel by a man who has not been identified. Keech, a friend of this man, aided him. Mandell, who helped and Stillmann, and another man, it was said, struck at Keech,
who dodged, and then Stillmann shot Keech, according to the witness found by the Lieutenant. The firing was at close range.

Arrested in Roundup.
Stillmann was arrested in a roundup of chauffeurs after the murder, but released for lack of evidence. Then he left the city, which aroused Lieutenant Aylward's suspicion. The Lieutenant could find no trace of the man who the witness had asserted fired the shot.

Yesterday the Lieutenant sent for the witness and told him he would have to go before the grand jury and tell the whole truth. "If that's the case," said this man, whose name is being withheld, "I might as well tell you, it was Still-mann who did the shooting."

The immediate arrest of Still-mann and Mandell was ordered and detectives were successful in finding them in the city within a short time. They were being brought to station as the Lieutenant was asking the witness to the grand jury.

"There's Stillmann now," the witness exclaimed, according to Aylward. "He's the man who fired
the shot."

Mandell is being held as a witness in the case. Stillmann, who had been employed by the Chevrolet Taxicab Co., was not working at the time of the murder. The release says he has been arrested previously in connection with investigations.

Body Found in Street.
A police sergeant found Keech's body in front of the St. Louis Hotel, formerly the Almar, at 4:50
a. m. Feb. 20. A few persons told of having heard a shot fired in the street and the man related that a taxicab had sped away from the fourteenth street door of the hotel and turned west
in Chestnut street after the shooting.

The home address of Keech, who was 30, never was determined. He was separated from his wife, Mrs.
Louise Keech, of 2221A Arsenal street.

TROTZYK RECEIVES OVATIONS
ON HIS WAY TO MOSCOW

By the Associated Press.
MOSCOW, May 6.—Leon Trotzky, former Soviet war minister, passed through here last night
on his way to Moscow from Suk-hum, the Transcaucasian resort,
where he has been staying for his health.

The famous Bolshevik leader,
who is now definitely reinstated to good standing in the communist party, spent a half day here con-fering with the secretary of the local communist party. Government officials and nonparty people attended the reception.

After leaving Sukhum he addressed large gatherings of people in the village districts and received great ovations. He appeared fully restored to health.

to the collector of the Port, announced today.

MISSOURI BANK CASHIER
FOUND SHOT TO DEATH

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
LIBERTYVILLE, Mo., May 6.—
The body of Frank Simpson, 39
years old, cashier of the Diehlstadt Bank of Diehlstadt, Scott County, was found in his closed automobile near here at 9 a. m. today with a bullet wound in the right temple.
A coroner's verdict of suicide was returned.

Simpson telephoned Miss Frances Yates of Bonne Terre last night from Jackson and visited her at her home a short time afterwards.
When he left her home shortly before midnight he wrote her a letter, which she received today. It said:
"I am in great trouble. I have no money. I have allowed my insurance to lapse, but have sufficient government insurance to provide for my burial."

Simpson is the son of John A.
Simpson of Bonne Terre. The spot where he was found is near a cemetery, in which a number of his relatives are buried. Libertyville is 10 miles southeast of Farmington.
The Diehlstadt Bank was closed
for a month in 1922.

DEPUTY COUNTY CIRCUIT CLERK
FINED $500 ON LIQUOR CHARGE

August Schroeder, Also Treated
to Lecture by Federal Judge Davis.

August Schroeder, a deputy clerk
in the Circuit Court of St. Louis County, was fined $500 and treated to a lecture by Federal Judge Davis today on his plea of guilty to possession of liquor in a saloon formerly operated by him on South
Kirkwood avenue, in Kirkwood.
Schroeder was arrested on March 12, 1924, when agents raided his place and seized 19 half pints of whisky. A similar charge against Adam Rutter, his bartender, was dismissed on Schroeder's plea of guilt.

"Were you a deputy clerk of the Circuit Court at the time of this raid?" Judge Davis inquired when the prisoner was arraigned.
"Why, yes," he answered.
"Why, you're an officer of the law," the judge continued. "You ought to be setting an example for others instead of violating the law yourself. I am going to fine you the limit under this act."

SHEPHERD'S WIFE NAMED ACCESSORY
IN POISON DEATHS

Coroner's Jury Accuses Her
of "Guilty Knowledge in Causing Decease" of the "Millionaire Orphan."

SHE WILL SURRENDER
AND SEEK RELEASE.

Husband, Now Held for Youth's Murder, Charged With Mate, of Having Killed Mrs. McClintock.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Described as a "Lady Macbeth" by Judge Harry Olson, instigator of the inquiry into the death of William N. McClintock, "millionaire orphan," Mrs.
William D. Shepherd, whose husband has been indicted for his murder, has been held as an accessory
by the investigating Coroner's Jury in its final report.

Mrs. Shepherd hastily left their suburban home after the jury reported last night, and could not be found by policemen who went there to take her on a Coroner's mittimone. Robert M. Stoll, her attorney, said he would surrender her today and endeavor to obtain her release on bail.

Concurs in Grand Jury Action.
The Coroner's jury concurred in the action of the grand jury in indicting Shepherd and Charles J.
Fahman, who confessed Shepherd offered him $100,000 for typhoid serum to give McClintock. The report accused Mrs. Shepherd of "guilty knowledge in causing the decease."

The jury recommended that Shepherd be held on murder charge,
with his wife as an accessory, in connection with the death, 16 years ago, of Mrs. Emma Nelson McClintock, the young mil-lionaire's mother. The jury found Mrs. McClintock died of mercury poisoning administered by Shepherd, of which his wife had guilty knowledge. Mercury was found in her exhumed body.

The jury was unable to fix the cause of the death, three years ago
of Dr. Oscar Olson, brother of Judge Olson and friend of the Mc-Clintocks. No poison was found in the exhumed body.

16-Year-Old Plot Alleged.
The finding added a "six-month" investigation in which three bodies were disinterred, 75
witnesses examined, a 1600 page
of testimony taken, and came after Judge Olson spent several hours in a scathing denunciation of the Shepherd who did the poisoning.

Olson criticized Mrs. Shepherd
as a "Lady Macbeth—cold and purposive, a strong, masculine woman,
and her husband as 'soft and weak-willed, unfit to earn a living for himself.'"

He charged that a 16-year-old conspiracy existed, which culminated in young McClintock's death after he had made a will leaving his estate of nearly $2,000,000 to Shepherd, with the exception of an $800 annuity to his fiancée, Miss Isabelle Pogue, a Miss Pogue, who waited at McClintock's death, and with a license for her to have been in California since she testified in the early days of the inquiry.

"Unfortunately," Prosecutor Says, State's Attorney Crowe was not enthusiastic over the Coroner's verdict. "It is extremely unfortunate,"
he said, "that with Shepherd's trial set for May 18, the Coroner should try to constitute his jury, a grand jury, while Judge Olson, Chief Justice of the Municipal Court, apparently tries to act the State's Attorney."

Shepherd went last night in his cell in the county jail, where he has been held since March 18.
"I hope there will be a fitting punishment for the fiendishness of Judge Olson," Mrs. Shepherd exclaimed shortly before she left the McClintock home in Kenilworth, a North Shore suburb, where Shepherd and his wife had lived for several years with their foster son, "Billy" McClintock. The house, generally known as the Shepherd home, actually belongs to the estate of young McClintock.

Admits Carrying Medicine.
Interviewed in jail by Stoll, Shepherd declared she not only
had no motive to desire her husband's demise, but that she had everything to lose.

"I was employed by her to subdivide her property in Texas, according to the plans of her deceased husband," Shepherd continued. "I had begun the sale of lots. By her death I lost the sale of the lots and the commissions which would have come to me. I had actually sold some of the lots before she died."

Although Thomas O'Brien of 3536 1/2 Connecticut street, a clerk in the accounting department of the excused from jury duty Monday,

after claiming the exemption enjoyed by lawyers, he having been admitted to the bar, Circuit Judge Mix is keeping him sitting in court
as a spectator during the trial of a case this week.

Lawyers are exempt from jury service, and when O'Brien explained that he had been admitted to the bar in 1915, but had never practiced law nor hung out a shingle, Judge Mix excused him
from service, but ordered him to remain in the courtroom and "get a little legal education."

Incidentally, Judge Mix said he could furnish O'Brien with law books, "containing the Missouri statute, city ordinances and sundry other volumes, which he matter advise O'Brien to read as a matter of brushing up on the fine points
of the profession that he appears to have neglected for a clerkship." O'Brien has taken the situation
good-naturedly and appears to be absorbed in the case, which is a suit by former Probate Judge Thomas B. Crews for a legal fee of $10,000 against Bernard P.
Bogey. Judge Crews represented Bogey in litigation over his wife's will and claims that Bogey never paid the fee.

Police of Suburb Arrive on Heels of Robbers Who Make Escape in Tourist Car.

Five robbers held on the O.
Orchard State Bank, Old Orchard
avenue and "Big Bend" road, Webster Groves, at 10-16 a. m. today,
and escaped three minutes later with about $5000, scooped into a sack from the cashier's cage.

Five armed robbers, who used a tourist car with red wheels and Missouri license No. 224-418, which they parked in a drive between the bank and a lumber yard. One remained at the wheel while the other four ran into the bank and divided the money. Three wore handkerchief masks.

Customer Slugged.
Miss M. C. Berg, 23 years old, the assistant cashier, who was in one of the cages, was first accosted; the unmasked man ordering her to "sit back 'em up." He stood over her while one robber remained at the door and two went behind
the partition to the rear office.

They pushed back ahead of them
from the front space two customers, Mrs. F. O. Hunt and Mrs. H.
Parker. Parker didn't move fast enough so one of the men struck him on the head with a revolver.
W. F. Barth, cashier, was at the telephone. He was made to drop the instrument. J. E. Ackfeld, vice president and former Mayor of Shrewsbury, rose from his desk
and tried to get out the back door for help but was stopped. The customers, Ackfeld, Barth and Hunt, Street, stenographer, were herded together in the back office.

ESKIMO TO WED WIFE OF MAN HE KILLED

Pardoned, He Will Be Taken Back to Tribe to Obey Eskimo Law.

By the Associated Press.
EDMONTON, Alberta, May 5.—
The young Copper Eskimo, Ikalukpiak, will be taken back to his tribe by Royal Canadian Mounted Police this summer from Stone Mountain Penitentiary,
where he is serving a term for manslaughter, to marry the wife of the man he killed.

The drama of primitive passions centered around Havoughach, 40 years old, his wife, Khattia, 24, and Ikalukpiak, 25, all copper Eskimo living inland about 100 miles from the R. M. C. P. post at Tree River in Coronation Quilt.

Havoughach and Khattia, being children, took Ikalukpiak to live with them when he was a youth.
He grew to manhood, possessing the cardinal virtues of the Eskimo, fearlessness in hunting and skill at fishing.

Havoughach was lax and given to sullenness and sudden outbursts of anger. His younger wife was not slow to see the contrast between the two men and she looked on the younger with a favor she could not disguise.

Her husband's jealousy was aroused. One day when the two men went out to bring deer meat
from a cache some miles away, according to Ikalukpiak, Havoughach threatened to shoot him, and for a moment they faced each other across a sled, Ikalukpiak armed only with a knife.

Then Havoughach, afraid to shoot,
dropped his rifle and walked away.
His antagonist, feeling that he must kill or be killed, picked up the gun and with one shot ended the husband's life. Then he surrendered to the police.

Since he was sentenced last summer Khattia has been waiting for him at Herschel Island, for, under the Eskimo law, he must support
her, since he killed her husband.
A local radio station will broadcast to the Arctic the news that Ikalukpiak is returning.

News of the pardon by the Governor-General in council of Ikaluk-piak was received today from the Secretary of State by J. Boyd Mc-Bride, counsel for accused, appointed by the Crown. The prisoner had served only five months of a five-year sentence.

was sold today at a price less than 5 cents of the dollar to Lewis creditors. M. M. Lyner, attorney for the trustees in Lewis' $12,000,000
bankruptcy at the second meeting of Lewis' creditors, said in a sworn statement yesterday. When a block of Lewis' creditors, who are numbering in the thousands, forced his debted assets of $22,000,000.

The hearing held here was before W. P. Butcher, chief of this city commissioner in bankruptcy.

ROMANCE OF THE KING RANCH

New York Girl Weds Texas Doctor
She Met There.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 5.—A romance of the 1920s, the 1920s, the King Ranch in Texas was disclosed today in word of the sudden marriage in Austin, Tex., Monday, of Miss Alice von Roeder, of New York, known as a beauty, to Dr.
Gillette Burns of Cuern, Tex. The father of the pair are physicians.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Ludwig Robert von Roeder, said the two families had known each other for 25 years, but that Dr. Burns and his bride had met only recently.
Miss von Roeder had gone to Texas to visit Mrs. Rudolph Kleberg, her father's aunt and wife of the manager of the King Ranch. August von Roeder, uncle of the bride, also is a Texas ranch owner. Dr. Burns is 28 years old and his bride, 22.

COMMUTERS DEMAND INCREASE IN SERVICE

Webster Groves Starts Fight Against Frisco's Move to Abolish Trains.

Countering the Frisco Railway's request for permission of the Public Service Commission to abolish its suburban train service, suburbanites are demanding an increase and general improvement of the service.

The opposition centers at present in Webster Groves, the city's largest suburb. City Attorney Robert Roessel of Webster Groves has filed an answer with the commission to the application of the Frisco. The railway pleads that private automobiles and busses have robbed it of so much traffic that the accommodation trains are operated at a loss.

Some suburbanites are considering an organization of the persons under the line to be known as the Frisco Commuters' League or by a similar name. Roessel expects Kirkwood, Valley Park and other communities to join Webster Groves in its protest and demand for better service.

"The Frisco has started this," Roessel said, "but we're going to finish it. The railroad has rendered exceedingly poor service in recent years. They haven't catered to the suburbs or tried to make suburbanites like it."

Treated Like a Stepchild. "Apparently the Frisco has treated suburban service like a stepchild, with the idea that the sooner it got rid of it the better it would be. In our answer to the application we state that we believe the Terminal Railroad is making certain charges to the Frisco which are being charged improperly to suburban service and that other items in accounting are charged improperly to suburban service."

"The Frisco is responsible for building up these communities along its line in the past and it can't quit them now. Shrewsbury, in particular, has absolutely no other transportation service."

"What we want is better service with increased efficiency. We want the local trains to run on Seventh street, near the downtown district, which would eliminate the station charges. We want better coaches and lights in coaches, more local trains and a better arrangement of the schedule, to serve more people."

Mass Meeting Held. "The fares charged now are too high in consideration of the service rendered and should be reduced or the service improved. The trains are so crowded now that you can't find seats often. On the other hand, I think the Missouri Pacific is giving pretty good suburban service and showing the right spirit."

The situation was discussed at a mass meeting of citizens with the Webster Groves City Council Monday night and at a mass meeting in the South Webster Congregational Sunday School last night, which supported City Attorney Roessel's action. Some suburban residents are circulating petitions on the suburban trains, protesting against the proposed elimination of service, and discussion is increasing in various communities.

The Public Service Commission has been requested to hold its hearing on the application in Webster Groves, so many citizens can appear in protest.

Chic

Attention to details and to correct finish creates much of that indefinable Parisian chic of Louisiana girls like Miss Millie Weldon, of Florien, who says: "For the last touch of distinction, there's nothing like a fluff of feathery Black and White Face Powder, delicately fragrant with 'Incense of Flowers.' It never clogs or dries out my pores or looks puffy, but spreads on so smoothly it seems like part of my skin."

You can get this exquisite Face Powder in your favorite shade, along with the other famous Black and White Beauty Creations, at low, popular prices, from any of 40,000 dealers all over the country.

$10,000 SUIT BY CHILD OVER SKIN GRAFTING

Action Filed in Behalf of Girl Alleges Cuticle Was Cut Away Against Her Will.

A suit charging that skin was cut from her legs and thighs against her will and grafted upon another child was filed in Circuit Court yesterday by Sarah Finn, 12 years old, who names as defendant Abraham and Rebecca Feiner, proprietors of a grocery at Brentwood.

The petition, which asks for $10,000 damages, was filed for the child by her uncle and legal guardian, Samuel Finger, of 2961 Dayton street, who recovered the child from the Feiners, with whom she lived, on Jan. 22, 1924, after a habeas corpus hearing at Clayton. The child, through her uncle as next friend, charges that patches of skin were removed from her legs and thighs on Aug. 17, 1922. At that time she was 10 years old. The removal, it is charged, permanently disfigured her legs.

Finger, who operates a shoe shop at the Dayton street address, took the child after her father and mother had died, seven years ago. In December, 1918, he allowed the child to live at the Feiners. Feiner is Finger's cousin. Finger won the habeas corpus proceeding and regained custody of the child in January, 1924, by showing that he was her legal guardian.

Hartley Denounces Child Welfare. By the Associated Press.
OLYMPIA, Wash., May 5.—Declaring that the children of today are "being made to pay the penalty for an over-abundance of altruistic twaddle," Gov. Roland H. Hartley has wired Mrs. Sophie Irene Loeb, president of the Child Welfare Committee of America, with headquarters in New York City that he would not name a delegate to be conference on child welfare, which will be held in New York May 15 to 20. The Governor said that while these doubts are in the State those who would gladly attend the conference, he believed they could best serve the State by staying at home and attending to their own affairs.

ILLINOIS BIRTH RATE GOES UP WHILE DEATH RATE DROPS

Figures on State for Last Year Issued by the Department of Commerce.
There were 137,114 births and 77,144 deaths in the State of Illinois in 1924, according to a table of vital statistics recently issued by the Department of Commerce, at Washington. This represents an increase in the birth rate from 19.4
to 19.5 per 1000 of population and a decrease from 12 to 11.2 in the death rate as compared with the previous year. The death rate of children under one year of age
also decreased from 81.9 per 1000
births to 71.1.
Figures for several nearby East Side cities and towns show that in Alton, births numbered 680 and deaths 355; Belleville, 465 births, 322 deaths; East St. Louis, 1457
births, 841 deaths; Granite City, 541 births, 294 deaths; and Murphysboro, 196 births and 146
deaths.
In East St. Louis, the birth rate increased from 19.5 to 20.6 and the death rate fell from 13.5 to 11.9.
Granite City's birth rate increased from 26.5 to 32.3, and the drop in the death rate, 13.7 to 12.2,
while the birth rate in Belleville fell from 19.2 to 17.5 and the death rate also declined from 14.5 to 12.5.

DEALERS FOR
Lloyd Baby Carriages and Furniture

Own
this beautiful and amazingly
low-priced carriage

Such lovely carriages they are—fine and beautiful and strong! Yet they cost less, instead of more, than other carriages. You can see them in all the stores, and dealers everywhere are glad to show you their many features of strength, beauty, convenience and comfort.

Spiral weaving on the famous Lloyd Loom is the secret of their beauty, sturdiness and low cost.
Spiral weaving gives them their graceful bowl shape, without seams, corners or loose ends; enables you to have a carriage with unusual refinements and exclusive features at no additional cost.
If you don't know where to find Lloyd Loom Carriages, with the steel-hearted upright stokes,
write for the nearest dealer's name and our booklet.

EFFICIENCY BOARD SECRETARY RESIGNS

W. E. Van Pelt Says He Doesn't Care to Serve Under Mayor Miller.

William E. Van Pelt, secretary of the Efficiency Board, resigned yesterday and explained that he did so because, "after 12 years of service under a man like Mayor Kiel, I have no desire to serve under Mayor Miller." He has been a city employee for 24 years.

William M. Kiene, supervisor of the clerical force of the Police Department, and a son of former Circuit Judge Kiene, is slated to be appointed as Van Pelt's successor. The position pays $1725 annually. Kiene today resigned from the Police Department effective June 1, to take the new job.

Van Pelt said his resignation was of his own volition and had not been requested. He supported Louis P. Allen for Mayor in the Republican primary but supported Mayor Miller in the election. He is a member of the Twenty-fourth Ward Republican organization and lives at 1167 Devonshire avenue.

"I have been in the city service for 24 years, haven't missed a day's pay in 24 years and can take a vacation," he said. Van Pelt was secretary of the Board for the past 12 years.

And Now Comes Cotton

Chicago has risen to the indisputable position of Farm Capital of the Nation.

It is the grain hub of the world. Four hundred million bushels of grain flow into this center annually.

For years it has been the central livestock and provision market of America.

And now comes Cotton.

Forming a new link between the North and the South, the Chicago Board of Trade on December 1 launched the third great cotton exchange of the United States.

The Chicago Futures contract is based on Texas or Western Cotton. Houston and Galveston are the main points of delivery. This is the greatest cotton exporting point in the world, where ample warehouse facilities exist.

Chicago's market, functioning under the U. S. Cotton Futures Act, will broaden the interest in that commodity, thus creating a more liquid market to the advantage of farmers and spot cotton merchants.

Chicago quotations, resting on values at Houston and Galveston, represent world values for cotton.

A study of the Chicago Cotton contract will clearly indicate the advantages offered.

Minimum contract is 100 bales. Trading hours 9 to 2 except on Saturday, when market closes at 11. Commissions are the same as on New York and New Orleans. Quotations are in cents and hundredths of a cent a pound. Fluctuations limited to 200 points in one day. Total volume of business exceeds 2,000,000 bales. Large contracts always on hand at Houston-Galveston basin serve as protection for both buyer and seller. Handling charges compare favorably with other American spot centers.

THE CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE

COURSE IN AVIATION FOR NAVAL CADETS

Secretary Wilbur Makes Recommendations Based on Report of Special Board.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Students at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, after this year, will be trained as aircraft pilots or observers, as well as ship's officers. Secretary Wilbur has issued an order adding courses in aviation to the regular curriculum.

The action follows recommendations of a special board appointed at the request of the President last year to study the relative values of battleships and aircraft among the various naval weapons.

The board began its work soon after inception of the controversy over the superiority of the airplane as the weapon of the future. At the close of the year, the graduates will be given three months' special instruction in ground and flight work, qualifying as pilots or observers, according to their qualifications.

In issuing the order, Secretary Wilbur said the Navy Department realized the importance of aviation and would endeavor to build up a "fleet" of the 1930s class.

Instead of making the summer cruise, will remain at the academy for instructions in aviation, taking the sea voyage the following year while the other half of the class studies gunnery. At the close of the year, the graduates will be given three months' special instruction in ground and flight work, qualifying as pilots or observers, according to their qualifications.

THINGS MAY NOT BE SO BAD AS SIR BRODERICK MADE OUT

U. S. Officials Say Only Seizure of Rum Believed to Be His Later Was Nullified.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The flight of Sir Broderick Hartwell, British banker, and his 1928 or 1929 British citizenship in the business of running whiskey into the United States, appears to be the end of Sir Broderick's recent made out.

Last month, Sir Broderick, in London, announcing his return from a visit to his home fleet off the American coast, told his shareholders in a bombastic statement that "our line would appear to be bound to be an appalling one" because 12,000 cases of rum had been "lost by seizure."

This would mean a loss at Armstrong's sporting goods of more than $1,000,000. He had promised investors a 10 per cent return on the seventh cargo.

Yesterday it was learned from Government officials here that this only seizure made of a whisky cargo believed to belong to Sir Broderick Hartwell, 19,688 cases captured aboard the rum runner Hunsford, has since been released to the Government and landed at Havana. If this cargo does, in fact, belong to Sir Broderick Hartwell and his shareholders it represents a savings of $500,000 from the "disaster" after discovery of our seizure, which he reported to the shareholders in England.

When the vessel and her cargo were brought into this port, Carl E. Thomas, a lawyer, appeared and claimed the cargo as the property of Peter T. Hunsford, New York. According to United States Attorney Backus, it was found the seizure had been made on the high seas without proper justification and with evidence small boats had taken away. The liquor was released March 15 and later landed at Havana.

Hunsford's Election Ratified.

BERLIN, May 6.—The election of Field Marshal von Hindenburg as President of the German republic was officially ratified yesterday by the Federal Election Commission, with 4,617,614 votes. Von Hindenburg led Dr. Marx by 564,131. Robert Thaelmann, Communist, polled 1,921,111.

EVERY WOMAN OWES IT TO HERSELF TO BUY AT LEAST THREE

Wonders in value-giving seem never to cease at Kline's. Now comes a marvelous assemblage of Silk Dresses—QUALITY FROCKS bought at an amazing price because FOUR GREAT STORES IN FOUR GREAT CITIES can absorb great enough quantities to demand a price lower than the lowest.

Values Which Are Simply Amazing!

We are indeed proud of this merchandising achievement. We can modestly say it is really a triumph. For when have dainty styles of Summer Frocks of pure silk materials been offered at the start of the season at such a low price? Under such favorable circumstances no woman has any excuse for wearing a wilted Dress. You can buy SEVERAL for what you would ordinarily pay for a single Frock.

THREE MIKES TELL TROUBLES IN COURT

No. 1 Challenged No. 2 to Combat Outside Slovak Lodge Rooms—No. 3 Got
the Worst of It.

The fraternal and brotherly order of the Slovak Evangelical Union had its fraternalism and brotherliness interrupted one Saturday evening last month by three occurrences, none of which was in the lodge's ritual or recognized procedure.

The three disturbances, closely following each other, were: Mike Belko requested Mike Kadlac to step out of the lodge rooms at Thirteenth street and Allen avenue,
and settle their difficulty by physical prowess; Mike Kadlac accepted
the request, but when he got to the top of the stairs, in Police Judge Belko's room, he pushed Mike Belko down them; no time in the subsequent exciting moments, Mike Belko is alleged to have bit the finger of the sergeant-at-arms,
whose name also is Mike.

So the three Mikes and the other sons of the Slovak Evangelical Union appeared in Police Judge Rosencranz's court yesterday to testify in the case of Mike Kadlac versus Mike Belko, as the latter two brothers had decided that the best way to settle their dispute was by legal methods and not by percussion. Kadlac, in the court procedure might not be so romantic as coastless men laying on at each other with bare fists.

Mike Kadlac told the Court that a year ago he had had the honor of being president of the Slovak Evangelical Union. Belko, he said, was a dissenter about his administration and did all he could to prevent him from carrying out his platform, or whatever it was he was endeavoring to carry out.
When he served his term, the ex-
president declared, Belko relented not, but continued to more or less abuse him, and this condition ended in the step pushing already related. Belko, however, testified he was a nice fellow and that Brother Kadlac was wrong. He inferred
the trouble was all of Brother Kadlac's causing.

Then the Mike who was bitten on the finger took the stand, and attempted to tell through an interpreter. What he knew, and several others attempted to tell what they knew. They tried to tell so much that the Judge warned them
they were lodge members and lodge doing were secret, and they should not tell them, and please not let he didn't want to listen to anyone else's secrets.

After hearing the difficulties of the two Mikes, and the testimony of the third Mike, Judge Rosencranz discharged both Mike Kadlac and Mike Belko. He warned them not to return and informed them that the least thing members of a fraternal organization could do was to be fraternal.

Put Vitamines In Tea

Always serve a lemon with your tea. Quenched or iced. Lemon brings out the full flavor of the tea—adds tang and zest. It furnishes fresh vitamins and organic salts and acids which are digestive aids. Tea, therefore, is a more healthful drink when lemon is included. All famous chefs serve lemons always with tea. It is a stylish custom that is based on scientific value.

Ask for California lemons, juicy, tart and practically seedless. Heat for slicing.

Keep a dozen handy for all kinds of uses.

CREDIT EXECUTIVE

Debtor Who Steals is in Same Class as Robber, J. Harry Tregoe Declares, at Luncheon.

FUND BEING RAISED TO COMBAT FRAUDS

Commercial Crooks Last Year Obtained $250,000,000 in United States, Speaker States.

Credit crooks obtained $250,000,000 last year from business men of this country, J. Harry Tregoe of New York, secretary of the National Association of Credit Men, declared in an address today at a luncheon at the City Club of the St. Louis Credit Men's Association and the Chamber of Commerce.

Tregoe is in St. Louis in the interest of the national campaign of the credit association to raise $2,500,000 for the suppression of commercial crime. St. Louis quota has been fixed at $100,000.

After commenting on the material progress that has been made in the United States, Tregoe said: "We are the most critically injured nation of the civilized nations in the world today. Crime abounds within our boundaries, and it has grown to proportions that should alarm our sensibilities and arouse us to the need of correcting it."

"In more than 100,000 of business done in this country at least 10 units are done on credit terms. Credit is a human power. It is founded on confidence, and confidence is founded on character. Anything that lowers the moral standard of business will affect credit, and just as credit is affected so will our business be affected."

"In the field of commerce we have recognized a distinctly lower moral tone in the last two years. We have had the burglar in social life, and now we have the burglar in our business life. The debtor who will steal, who will not pay for them, who will take advantage of the credit and good will of his creditor, just as much a burglar as the one that breaks into a home and steals."

Large Credit Losses. The effect of this condition is reflected in the large credit losses of the last two years. During 1934 we suffered in credit losses at least $250,000,000, or about $25.00 per capita. Of this huge sum at least $125,000,000 was lost to credit.

There is an underworld in business with master minds, with numerous schemes through which stolen merchandise finds an exit. We, of the Credit Association, are undertaking to uphold the morale of business and we believe our people as a whole will arise to the issue of building the morale of society."

Tregoe explained that the Credit Association's campaign for $2,500,000 was made necessary to check commercial crime. The money will be spent, he stated, in punishing the commercial criminals, and having it understood that burglary in business will be even more dangerous than burglary in the home.

MISSOURIAN AFTER U. S. JOB. The Lacy seeks appointment in Justice Department.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Dr. E. C. Spenser, Republican National Committeeman for Missouri today called upon Attorney-General Saris to obtain a place in the Department of Justice for Nat Lacy of Maysville, Mo., who also has the support of Senator Selden P. Spencer.

No definite action was taken by Attorney-General, who has been over Rush Holland's job of appointment officer, is out of the way.

A year ago last April Lacy was named by Senator Spencer if he accepted a place in the solid-state office of the department. Lacy, formerly of Franklin County, at the time, Spencer said was by no means certain that he would get the appointment. There were other candidates and Lacy didn't get the job.

Lord Leverhulme III. The Associated Press.

LONDON, May 6.—A medical bulletin issued this morning gives some fear regarding the condition of Lord Leverhulme, who has been ill with a cold for several days. The bulletin says inflammation of the lungs is present, which the Viscount's age, 64, "must cause considerable anxiety."

Committee on Resolutions, favored the continuance of the league's work toward the entrance of the United States in the World War, the program favoring the option of the proposed child labor amendment, and contained support of the Shepard-Towles act. The fourth resolution opposed the McDowder bill, which would make amending the Constitution more difficult. All were adopted.

IMPROVEMENTS AT MUNICIPAL THEATERIndividual Type Chairs in Rear
Section Will Provide 25-Cent Reserved Seats.

In preparation for its 10 weeks' season of all fresco productions at the Municipal Theater in Forest Park, beginning Monday night, May 25, the Municipal Theater Association is rushing to completion several improvements in the theater.

Among the improvements is a modern, completely equipped comfort station, now under construction at a cost of $22,000. This building will be finished by May 15, when it will be formally presented to the city by officials of the theater association. The cost of the comfort station will be borne exclusively by the association from the surplus accruing from previous seasons under its direction at the Municipal Theater.

Another improvement is the installation of permanent individual type seats in the rear sections of the theater. This will enable the association to provide a reserved seat for the performances at an additional fee of 25 cents. The permanent buildings and equipment of the theater are being painted.

Individual Type Chairs.
The development of the Municipal Theater into the first rank of modern theaters is in keeping with the policy announced in 1919, the year of its municipal operation. At that time it was stated that all the profits accruing from the annual summer seasons would be used in improvements of the theater, new equipment and endeavor to raise the artistic standard of the performances sponsored by the association. In six years more than $80,000 has been expended for improvements and equipment.

During the present season there will be permanent individual type chairs throughout the auditorium, with the exception of about 1,500 seats in the second reserved portion. These new seats have cost $1500.

Last summer the theater association provided an entirely new electrical system at a cost of $10,000. A new switchboard of 2000 switches was installed, new footers constructed and other improvements made that would allow technical directors of the opera company the fullest freedom in planning lighting effects for the productions.

Other Improvements.
In 1923 a sound amplifier was installed at an expense of $12,500. This improvement adds materially to the enjoyment of the performances by those who frequent the theater. The seating of the audience has contributed more than $1000 to the cost of the construction of the pergoles along the decorative purposes in good order and for shelter in event of rain.

Other improvements of the theater since the beginning of municipal operation include new dressing room buildings, a scenic studio, a permanent stage and stage covering, reconstruction of the box seat section, remodeling of the sides of the auditorium and new plumbing. There are also a large number of other items.

In developing the Municipal Theater the association has had financial support of the local business community. The annual fashion pageant at the Municipal Theater. This organization, in 1924, made cash contributions from time to time.

John C. McAuliffe Funeral.
Funeral services for John C. McAuliffe, 70 years old, an inspector of the City Fire Alarm office for 25 years, who died yesterday at the St. Louis Hospital of complications of diseases after an illness of three years, will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow from his residence, 101 Pershing avenue, in the St. Louis Cathedral. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery. Mr. McAuliffe was born and reared in St. Louis. He is survived by his widow, Johanna Costello McAuliffe; daughters, Misses Mary J. and Florence McAuliffe; Mrs. Thomas J. McAuliffe and Mrs. Charles J. McAuliffe; and two sons, John C. and C. McAuliffe.

Jeffersonian Women's Meeting.

QUEER NAMES.
PHILIP CURTIS in the American Magazine.

It is when we come to last names that our hands go into the air and we face real tragedy. The most startling name I ever heard of, first, last and middle, is Singular Onions Gallyhaws. I would not even dare cite this name if it could not be proved by court record in my own State. I know personally the lawyer who represented the members of the Gallyhaws family when they petitioned the court to change the name to Gale. A sympathetic judge granted the petition. Here is a list of family names taken from city directories, newspapers and other actual sources: Pinecoffin, Paradise, Pentecost, Easter, Natty, Batty, Sunday, Monday, Friday, Natty, Batty, Silley, Dice, Teagarden, Harshbarter, Dogbar, Candlemaker, Catty, Pitch, Horseshoe, Cashdollar, Wyper, Mixer, Riser, Topping, Hopp, Skipp, Jump, Yapp, Gell, Bump, Bottoms and Shute.

Mrs. I. M. Margulius of 4215 Lindell boulevard will be hostess at a silver tea Sunday afternoon. The proceeds of which will be devoted to the senior chapter of the Junior Hadassah.

Shaved Four Presidents.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The recent death of Bernard Bernhardt, known to two generations of San Franciscans as the owner and manager of the Palace Hotel barber shop, recalls the many celebrities he shaved. He was past 80, and for 50 years had missed scarcely a day at his shop. He trimmed the beards of Presidents Hayes, Grant and Benjamin Harrison and shaved Presidents William McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson and Warren G. Harding. Among other notables in every walk his list included Enrico Caruso and John L. Sullivan.

PRINCESS MAFALDA TO WED

Rome Hears She Is Betrothed to Prince Philip of Hesse.

(Copyright, 1925.)
ROME, May 6.—Roman society affirms that Princess Mafalda, 23 years old, the King's eldest unmarried daughter, is engaged to Prince Philip of Hesse, who has been staying in Rome some time. Prince Philip, who is 20 and a great favorite in aristocratic circles, has been in love with Princess Mafalda for several years, but until now the Royal family, especially the Queen mother, steadily opposed him.

Now he tells his friends that the King has yielded to the joint entreaties of the young couple and Princess Yolanda, the King's eldest daughter, who for two years has been happily married to Count Carlo Calvi di Bergolo, a Piedmontese noble.

THE QUICK AND GENTLE WAY TO END A CORN

SOUND AMPLIFIERS FOR
NEW $50,000 BANDSTAND

Structure Being Erected in Forest Park Is Gift to City of Former Congressman Nathan Frank.

A change is being made in the type used in the nearby Municipal Theater are to be installed in the new $50,000 bandstand being erected in Forest Park, the gift of former Congressman Nathan Frank. An engineer of the company supplying these devices is in consultation now with the architects. The amplifier will carry music to listeners on the fringe of the available space for the audience.

The bandstand is being erected on the ornamental outside material of the bandstand, at Frank's direction. The design calls for four large groups of columns on a large base upholding an artistic canopy. These are of steel, to be lined inside with marble.

A synthetic stone was specified for the exterior of the columns and of the concrete base, and was erected. Frank, returning from Cuba on Feb. 28, found small bands in the surface of the material, which seemed to him to make it unsuitable to withstand the weather. He ordered the substitution of Bedford stone, which is white, while the synthetic material has been removed, and the bands begun to arrive. The pavilion will be completed about July 1. It is immediately north of the Municipal Theater.

CHURCH BOARD MAKES REPLY

Charges Relating to Unification
to Be Investigated.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 6.—Declaring that every act of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, "is an open book," the board in session here yesterday appointed a committee to investigate charges alleged to have been made in the church by the Rev. Mr. Schuler, Los Angeles, that the missionary organization of the church was using its staff and funds in the interest of unification with the Northern branch of the church.

Resolutions specifying the method of voting on unification were adopted yesterday by the College of Bishops of the church. They specify that a majority vote will determine the question of unification of the northern and southern branches of the church, and declare that no lay member who is not 25 years of age, and has not been for six years prior to his election a member of the church, shall be a lay member of the annual conference.

Graduating Exercises of City Hospital Training School to Be Held at the Hospital.

The annual graduating exercises of the City Hospital Training School for Nurses will be held at City Hospital at 8 o'clock tonight. A class of 24 nurses, who have completed the two and one-half year course at the institution, will be graduated.

The exercises will be held in a first-floor ward of the hospital. Mrs. Frederick Roth, chairman of the Municipal Nurses Board, will present the diplomas and pins to the graduates, following an address by Dr. Allen J. McLaughlin of the United States Public Health Service. Hospital Commissioner Jordan and Superintendent Scharff of City Hospital also will speak. A musical program will conclude the exercises.

The graduates will be guests of the St. Louis Training School Alumni at the annual alumni banquet at the Hotel Melbourne tomorrow night. Application for entrance in the Training School next July may be made now. Four years' high school training or its equivalent is required.

BISHOP IS CITED FOR SEDITION

Denied Authority of Mexican Government Over Church.

MEXICO CITY, May 6.—Jose de Jesus Manrique Zarate, Bishop of Huejutla, has been cited to the Attorney-General by the Department of the Interior for a recent pastoral letter which the authorities consider openly seditious. Referring to the occurrences in connection with the creation of the Mexican apostolic church and the taking over of church buildings by the Government, Bishop Zarate said: "The church is the property of God and that the Government is guilty of theft when it took them over."

Concerning the article in the Mexican Constitution empowering the Government to intervene in religious matters, the pastoral letter is quoted as saying: "We solemnly declare that we will never submit to the Government's authority in church matters, in which the Pope is the only authority." Any law contrary to the divine or ecclesiastical laws, it was added, were null and highly immoral.

WOMAN'S KIND ACT RESULTS IN HER DEATH

She Is Fatally Burned When Helping Neighbor Clean
Some Clothing.

A visit to the home of a friend to do a neighborly favor resulted fatally to Mrs. Gertrude Langeneckert, 42 years old, of 2828 McNair avenue. She died yesterday afternoon at the city hospital of burns suffered Monday noon.

Mrs. Langeneckert went to the home of Dr. E. A. Voigt at 2618 South Grand boulevard, Monday, to assist Mrs. Voigt in drying cleaning some clothing. While she was working with the clothing in the basement of the Voigt home the cleaning fluid became ignited and her clothes caught fire.

Dr. Voigt and Howard Bailey, a negro porter at Alhambra Grille, next door to the residence, rushed to her assistance and extinguished the flames. Both were painfully burned. The house was damaged $2500 in the blaze which followed.

Mrs. Langeneckert was rushed to the city hospital, but she was so badly burned that there was no hope of her recovery. She was the wife of Charles Langeneckert.

GERMAN INDUSTRY NO WORSE OFF THAN IT WAS BEFORE WAR

other nation for chemicals. The late war brought business to a standstill in the opinion of military observers, and each nation seeks to encourage its home chemical production, not only for commercial supremacy, but for war preparedness. For this reason Japan, for example, has refused to encourage German dyes despite the fact that the Reich's products are cheaper and better.

This form of German trade-based on effective plans for combat—has been accelerated by stabilization. When the mark dwindled, industries were fused simply because the giant industrialists saw an opportunity of expanding their holdings. In many instances there was no plan behind the union. The rate of trust formation as a whole has decreased since the Dawes plan. But every move now made is a move for preservation of power, and the trusts created have as little relation to the casual union of inflation days as a well disciplined army to a disorganized rabble.

Government Compensation. Individually, the industrial magnates have come out well ahead of both inflation and stabilization. The Government compensated them for losses in territory seized by the French. The Government compensated them for losses in the Ruhr occupation. Note the rise of Siemens, Otto Wolff, the Stumm brothers. Even the Krupp, who suffered most, have not fared so badly. They were compelled to destroy $50,000,000 worth of war machines. For this they were given compensation by the Government; not in full, it is true, due to the depreciation of the paper mark.

But later during the Ruhr occupation the Government issued credits widely to the industrialists and received back depreciated marks, so that accounts are at least balanced. They replaced 8000 destroyed machines with apparatus for the manufacture of agricultural implements, cash registers and moving picture outfits which can be made on cannon lathes.

Through their national association Reichverband der Deutschen Industrie, the industrialists wield enormous political power. The People's party, of which Foreign Minister Stresemann is head, devotes itself to their welfare. At first the industrialists were menaced by the conflicting interests of the big land owners, the modern feudal barons. But common meeting ground has been found and in the presidential elections these two classes merged into a reactionary coalition.

Want to Meet Competition. Politically, the big industrialists are guided by what is beneficial to their business interests. They believe with the return of economic power abroad political power will follow. They do not believe in "creed" armies, monarchist revolts, defiance of the outside world. They are practical men. They will support no policy that antagonizes other nations that Germany cannot afford to antagonize.

Dedicated to the monarchy in principle, they will not support a monarchy until such time as the transition can be effected without a loss to their pockets. When this will be they do not know and particularly care. It is with them a sentimental issue.

They are immediately interested in meeting world competition and keeping Socialists and trade unionists out of their pockets. They will cooperate with labor only when strikes promise to be of long duration and costly. By the system of concentrating industry into the most compact form possible they are simultaneously accomplishing both purposes. They are mobilized for war at home and abroad.

And their commander-in-chief is Coal.

be room for differences as to the nature of the spiritual body.

Equivalent of Treason.

"Heresy," the speaker said, "is within the church, the equivalent of treason within the State. Both are psychological before they become overt acts, and both may exist for long periods without involving overt acts. As the nation negatively tolerates a certain amount of constructive treason within its limits, on the principle that more harm would accrue from attempting to root it out than from ignoring it, so does the church with heresy. None of us wishes to become a heresy hunter. The only condition in which the church is likely to deal formally with heretical utterances is that in which an accredited teacher in the church so constantly so formally, so destructively, assails the doctrine of the church, that he is seen to be tearing down the Christian structure more rapidly than in other ways, he may conceivably be building it up."

Yet the fact remains that for a priest of the church, having deliberately entered upon the teaching ministry and taken upon himself the ordination vows, deliberately to assail the doctrine he has been commissioned to teach, is a dishonorable act. We may not mind words in saying this. His honor is directly involved."

Science Is Aiding Church.

The speaker outlined what he considered the proper course for a minister in such a position, saying that he should first endeavor, by study, to reconcile his position with that of the church; and if unable to do so, should withdraw from the ministry. He urged that Bishops should be more careful in the choice and ordination of clergymen.

"Let it be understood," he said, "that the church has no quarrel with scholarship, and is not afraid of any scholarly investigation of her faith. Natural science is removing some of the difficulties relating to the resurrection. We confidently expect biology to establish the principle of virgin birth as the inevitable manner by which pre-existing God should become incarnate, simply because natural law assures to us the certainty that natural generation produces a new being, and therefore it would run counter to inviolable natural law if the same process brought into human life one who had existed before his human parents. From the criticisms of scholarship—and there are such—we appeal to a better scholarship. And there is no section of the Catholic faith that leaves us to fear what scholarship can do to it."

Real Heresy Is Rare.

In my judgment there is within the church nothing like the amount of actual, formal heresy that there is generally supposed to be. There is a good deal of what is called material heresy, a good deal more of simply misunderstanding of the Christian faith, and therefore an inadequate presentation of it. But we are not in nearly as much danger from formal heresy as we are from what little learning which is a dangerous thing, and our cranks and eccentrics who like to do the bizarre and to attract attention rather to themselves than to the church, are a greater nuisance to the church than heretics. Many a man glories in the thought that he is a heretic in these days when defiance of law is deemed smart, when in real fact he is only a plain chump. Only very rarely indeed, and only in very extreme cases, are we likely to find the resort to ecclesiastical trials necessary to establish or to protect the faith.

Where are the heretics of yesterday? They flourished, they found their pictures in the daily papers, they were abundantly reported, they stuck pins into the souls and tortured sensitive souls. And now? Call the roll and see where they are today.

The Rev. Mr. White, at one point in his address, said, "The Episcopal church is big enough and catholic enough to have within her fold the strange performances which take place in St. Mark's in the Bowery and St. Mary the Virgin's." This was an allusion to two New York

Episcopal churches, the former of which attained wide notoriety through the dancing exhibitions given there, while the latter is the exponent of the most extreme ritualism of the Anglo-Catholic party.

The rectors of both churches mentioned were present, and both took part in the discussion which followed the prepared addresses.

The Rev. Dr. William Norman Guthrie of St. Mark's, who has been in recent controversies with Bishop Manning of New York, spoke briefly. He declared that orthodoxy and heresy have nothing to do with real religion, as religion consists in deeds. The Rev. Selig Delany, rector of St. Mary the Virgin's, said that the church sought to encourage thinking, rather than discourage it, and that its attitude toward doubters should be one of helpfulness, not antagonism. He said religious controversy was beneficial in turning attention toward religion, and that the recent discussion of the virgin birth was followed by the largest sale of religious books on record in New York.

At tonight's session of the Congress, at Sheldon Memorial, the discussion is to be on the subject of "The United States in World Relations," with James G. McDonald of New York, chairman of the Foreign Policy Association, as chief speaker. The meetings are open to the public.

By the Associated Press. HONOLULU, May 6.—The territorial Attorney General William B. Lomer, in an opinion given yesterday, says that Filipinos owing permanent allegiance to the United States, who become residents of Hawaii, may become naturalized citizens and when citizens they become eligible for membership in the Hawaiian national guard.

This opinion reverses a ruling of the former Attorney General John A. Mathewsman, which ruled out 125 members of the National Guard on the ground they were ineligible to citizenship.

AMERICANS CONFER WITH JAPANESE

Theodore E. Burton, in Speech, Says America Has Discouraged Loans for War Purchases.

Copyright, 1925, by the Press and Publishing Co., New York, N. Y., and Post-Dispatch Co., St. Louis, Mo.
GENEVA, May 6.—The United States delegation to the arms conference has stepped into the lead, calling out for the fullest publicity. A spokesman for the delegation told the New York World and Post-Dispatch correspondent that the Americans would go farther than any other nation to secure a powerful board which would throw the searchlight of unrestricted publicity on all phases of arms exports and imports.

Furthermore, he said, the United States is willing to co-operate to the utmost in any efforts toward international peace, regardless of their orientation, so long as they are not contrary to its traditional policies.

The speech of Theodore E. Burton, leader of the American delegation, yesterday, was barely eight minutes in length. It was intended to establish a precedent against long-winded dissertations, and was consistent with the lead of the committee on procedure, which accomplished in 45 minutes as much as the plenary conference did in a week.

Besides reference to traffic in arms, Burton said the Americans would make certain suggestions concerning measures to deal with the traffic in poisonous gases, in the hope of reducing the barbarity of modern warfare.

Americano-Japanese Accord.
The second plenary session, devoted to an unexpected rapprochement between the United States and Japan, both Matsuda and Burton exchanging felicitations and stressing the absence of friction in the Pacific.

It was stated that the Americans and Japanese had conferred informally on the question of China and had reached an understanding that as the agreements already in force are far more drastic than anything that might be included in the contemplated convention the subject will be adjourned.

Burton injected the debt controversy, presumably inadvertently, when he said, "America continuously has discouraged the traffic in war materials. The flotation of foreign loans in the United States to purchase armaments also has been consistently, and it is believed, successfully, discouraged."

Observers, however, have not overlooked the fact that Burton is a member of the United States Debt Commission and that he has announced he will interview Premier Painleve and Finance Minister Caillaux of France on his return to Paris at the conclusion of the conference.

The Americans also are contemplating the advisability of asking the conference how and why Germany is permitted to export war materials in defiance of the Versailles treaty. According to information given the correspondent by league supporters, the Inter-Allied Council grants permission, provided the money accruing is devoted to reparations.

The policy of aiding and abetting disorders in China, Morocco and other parts of the world in order to pay reparations is regarded by the Americans as inconsistent with the spirit of the proposed treaty.

Friendly Gesture to Germany.
France made a friendly gesture to Germany at the opening of today's session of the conference, when Paul Boncour moved that the Steering Committee be enlarged from seven to nine members, so that all sections of the world might be represented, particularly non-members of the League of Nations. Germany, chiefly as the result of this motion, now is represented on the committee.

Representative Burton, head of the American delegation, received the highest number of votes for a place on the committee.

Villanueva Wins Bolivian Election.
LA PAZ, Bolivia, May 6.—Jose Gabriel Villanueva was chosen President of the Republic of Bolivia in the elections held last Saturday. The count of the ballots showed that Senor Villanueva polled 45,000 votes as the Republican candidate as against 11,000 for the defeated coalition candidate, Daniel Salamanca. The Government party also was victorious in the elections of members of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies.

"Jurists' and women's clubs are in favor of a law making the taking of babies' finger prints obligatory. The need for such a measure is shown by the many cases of mistaken identity and their tragic consequences."

—from a News Story.

The Strange Case of Billy Ward

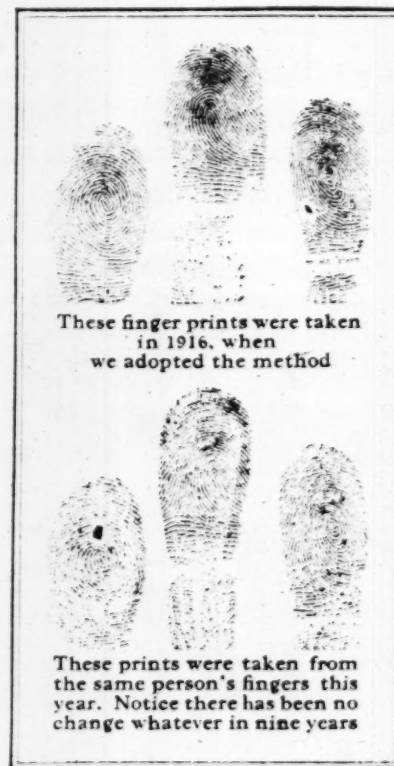

BILLY WARD, a toddling baby, was playing in the yard. His mother was called to the phone, her attention held for a few moments—and when she looked out again Billy had disappeared.

Frantic but futile efforts were made to find him. Some nomads camped near town were grilled, but nothing could be proved. Years passed and the case was forgotten—by all except the family and the police. His parents gave Billy up as lost, but the watchful eye of the authorities was kept on the wanderers.

Nine years later an old woman of the tribe was found in a distant city with a boy whose presence caused suspicion. They were brought back, and Billy Ward's parents knew their boy had been found—but how to prove it? The woman told a straight story, and possession was on her side. Racking their brains for scars, birthmarks, or other ways to identify Billy, his parents finally remembered opening a savings account for him on his first birthday—and the bank had taken his finger prints! It was a simple matter to take his finger prints again, nine years later, and establish complete and lawful identification.

Billy Ward is back at school now, restored to his loving parents. Needless to say, he and his brothers and sisters will always have savings accounts, with finger prints on file.

THE ABOVE, like most all mystery stories, never happened. But it could have happened, and the point we are trying to bring out is that anyone who has finger prints on file in our Savings Department can always prove identity.

Features change, handwriting changes, but those lines on the finger tips do not change, and two alike have never been found. We will take baby's finger prints on a signature card today when you open the account, and the young man or woman can come back 21 years later and draw the money. Identification will be positive, and the means for you to identify the child positively will have been in our files all the time.

Finger prints are, as a rule, only taken of those who cannot write, but on request we will take them on the signature card of any new savings account.

IT IS a matter of record that but one attempt to "forge" finger prints on file in our Savings Department has been made in the nine years we have been using the system. That was an unsuccessful attempt.

Our patrons are protected by every known scientific and mechanical method.

Science combines Milk of Magnesia with Mineral Oil to fight indigestion and acidosis.

Modern civilization with its heavy eating and its lack of exercise has brought two great foes of human health, constipation and acidosis, to the door of your stomach. Your indigestion, that dark brown taste in the morning—are all symptoms of a condition.

Milk of Magnesia is fine for neutralizing harmful stomach acids, but it is not a laxative. Therefore Science has combined pure mineral oil with this gentle agent.

Milk of Magnesia-Oil is the name of this perfect emulsion upon which the U. S. Government has granted a patent.

The milk of Magnesia counteracts and neutralizes the acids and the mineral oil softens the stool, overcoming constipation naturally without forming a habit. It is a non-habit-forming, safe, and effective remedy.

Take it at your drugstore today and get relief before going to bed and get a new morning feeling like a new man or woman.

6 ATLANTA FIREMEN DIE AS FLOOR FALLS

Cotton Bales Bury Them When Second Story of Warehouse Gives In.

By the Associated Press.
ATLANTA, May 6.—Six city firemen were killed and four injured early today when the upper floor of a building in which they were fighting fire collapsed, the men being buried beneath bales of cotton that had been stored on the second floor.

The building was a two-story brick structure, used for storing cotton. The firemen were fighting the blaze from the ground floor when the roof and upper floor fell in, sending them down beneath a weight of cotton bales.

Capt. C. O. Bone and Lieut. R. L. Denard were among those killed. Four other firemen, F. F. Wilson, L. M. Smith, E. S. Konkle and C. O. King, were dead when their bodies were taken from the ruins.

Assistant Fire Chiefs Joe Anderson and R. H. Presley were injured, the former receiving a dislocated shoulder and the latter a wrenched back. Two other firemen also were suffering from injuries when rescued from the debris. The fire was confined to the one building. When the upper floor collapsed calls were sent out for help. The entire city fire fighting apparatus was soon on the scene and relief efforts placed on an organized basis.

It was necessary to dig among the debris to get the dead and injured and it was some time after the fire was out before all of the missing firemen were accounted for.

About 150 bales of cotton were stored in the building.

FOUR MONTHS' JAIL TERM OF WOMAN BOOTLEGGER UPHOLD

Court of Appeals Affirms Conviction in 1923 of Mrs. Margaret Stanley.

The four months' jail term and $500 fine assessed against Mrs. Margaret Stanley in 1923 for bootlegging was upheld by the St. Louis Court of Appeals yesterday and she was given 10 days in which to file a motion for a new trial before entering upon her sentence. Mrs. Stanley, a divorcee, who is 24 years old, and resided at 482 Page boulevard, formerly conducted a soft drink establishment at 6319 Easton avenue, in Wellston. She was arrested on June 9, 1923, after Deputy Sheriffs had searched her place under a warrant and discovered 700 quarts of home brew, 120 gallons of fermenting beer and several quarts of wine and alcohol in a secret cellar under an out-house, the entrance of which was cleverly hidden under a movable stairway.

When the case came up at Clayton, trial by jury was waived and, after hearing testimony, Circuit Judge Wurdeman assessed the double penalty Mrs. Stanley's appeal, which failed yesterday, was based upon technical objections. Following the raid, she sold her bar and is now employed as a telephone operator.

FREY HEADS B'NAI B'RITH
St. Louis Judge Chosen at Convention of Order in Cleveland.

By the Associated Press.
CLEVELAND, O., May 6.—Help extended by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America to combat antisemitic prejudice and propaganda was welcomed by the Order of B'Nai B'rith district No. 2 in a report adopted at the closing session of its annual convention yesterday. Judge A. B. Frey of St. Louis, was elevated to the presidency and Rabbi Samuel S. Mayerberg, Dayton, became first vice president, succeeding Frey. Benjamin M. Achenberg, Kansas City, was elected second vice president to succeed Rabbi Mayerberg. Kansas City was chosen for next year's convention. The convention voted to appropriate $2000 to the Levi Memorial Hospital, Hot Springs, Ark.; $1000 to the Denver Sheltering Home for Jewish Children; $700 to the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society, Denver, and $1500 to the National Jewish Hospital for Consumptives, Denver.

Spokane Bars Obscene Magazines.
By the Associated Press.
SPOKANE, Wash., May 6.—Wholesale news agents of this city have collected from news stands copies of a score of magazines ordered suppressed by Prosecuting Attorney Charles Leavy as obscene and indecent. Leavy announced that he would prosecute in the case of further sales of magazines coming under this category. The action follows passage of a resolution by the recent convention here of the Inland Empire Education Association, condemning the circulation of such publications.

G. A. R. Convenes at Joplin.
JOPLIN, Mo., May 6.—Delegates were still arriving when the forty-fourth encampment of the Missouri department of the Grand Army of the Republic opened here this morning. Four hundreds veterans are expected to be present. Almost as many delegates will attend conventions of the five affiliated organizations, the Women's Relief Corps, the Ladies of the G. A. R., the Daughters of Veterans, Sons of Veterans and Sons of Veterans Auxiliary.

NO VACATION FOR WOOD

Governor of Philippines Denies He Plans to Come to U. S.

By the Associated Press.
MANILA, May 6.—Governor-General Wood today denied reports he expected to depart soon for a vacation in the United States. The statement by the Governor-General was made after his return from an inspection tour of the northern provinces. The Governor added it would be impossible for him to leave the Philippines before Jan. 1, 1926, and at present he has no plans for a vacation, although he has been in the islands four years.

During his trip to the northern provinces, Wood visited the Batanes Islands, where he found small Japanese vessels were landing frequently without authority. Although the Japanese have committed no recent depredations, it is possible that a formal protest will be lodged against vessels landing at the Batanes Islands without first having obtained clearance papers at Aparri.

Lenroot to Ask Railroad Inquiry.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 6.—Investigation of the recent failure of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad will be demanded by Senator Lenroot (Rep.), Wisconsin, immediately after Congress convenes in December. Senator Lenroot announced today that he would introduce a resolution calling for an inquiry either by the Senate or by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

QUATRIN AND CAPTAIN HAL ARE IN GREAT FORM, TRIALS SHOW

Louisiana Derby Winner Appears Best of Colts Now at Churchill Downs

Captain Hal Works Full Distance in Good Time, but Slows Up at End—Lee O. Cotner Disappoints Admirers by Tiring Badly When Asked to Go Route.

LOUISVILLE, May 6.—That a Western-trained horse would win the $50,000 Kentucky Derby one week from next Saturday was the firm conviction of horsemen here today.

They based their opinions on the improvement shown in the trials of yesterday. Particularly are the chances of Captain Hal and Quattrin enhanced, the railbirds are saying.

Both these horses showed speed and stamina yesterday, and finished their workouts in fine condition and leaving the impression of great reserve power.

As to the logical winner of the classic, among the colts now in training for that event at the Downs, there does not seem to be much of a question.

The colt Quattrin, winner of the New Orleans handicap and Louisiana Derby, is today the choice. But it is 16 days until the Derby is to be run and much can happen in that time.

Capt. Hal Goes Derby Route.

"Captain Hal, property of A. A. Bayers, was asked to go the full Derby distance yesterday, and acquitted himself satisfactorily to his trainer and his legion of faithful followers. His work was the best mile and a quarter shown here by any of the Derby eligibles, this year, and while he was rather tired at the end, he still had a determined way of going.

It might be said that the colt was well within himself at the finish, but some close work with him has been "straight as a string," Captain Hal was timed the first quarter in 22 1/2, half in 45 1/2, three-quarters in 1:12 1/2, mile in 1:58 1/2, and a quarter in 3:12 1/2.

Time Not Seasonal.

While there is nothing sensational in the time made by Captain Hal for the Derby route, it can be said that he is the first time he has ever been asked to go that far at full speed. It was the consensus that the work will do the rest of the job in his preparation for the Derby as well as for his first essay of the season, which will be in the Clark Handicap next week.

In the Clark Handicap, Captain Hal has been assigned 16 pounds and if the track is fast, he should give a good account of himself in this $10,000 fixture. The distance is only one mile and a sixteenth and should be about right for the colt, as he has shown his best racing form in the mile and a sixteenth.

Lee O. Cotner came in the track a few minutes after Captain Hal's good trial. The blinkers were added on the Colts and he broke at the three-quarter mark. Full of run, he went the first quarter in 22 1/2, half in 45 1/2, three-quarters in 1:12 1/2, mile in 1:58 1/2, and a quarter in 3:12 1/2.

Lee O. Cotner Tires Badly.

The colt was dead tired at the end and did not attempt to gallop out the mile and a quarter. While the first part of his work was extremely fast, he tumbled off in the latter part of the trial much more than did Captain Hal. Trainer Jones had little to say concerning the trial of Lee O. Cotner, further than that it was his first time during the training period.

Georgia Peach Totals 16 Bases in Getting 6 Hits In 6 Trips to the Plate

Leading in His Twentieth Season as Major Leaguer, Cobb Leads Attack Which Crushes Sisters—Score, 14 to 8.

By Herman Wecke.

Tyrus Raymond Cobb, manager of the Detroit Tigers, serving his twentieth season in the American League, is not ready to be put out as a player. Cobb proved that much to the satisfaction of 4000 persons at Sportsman's Park yesterday. It mattered not that George Harold Sister made two safeties, and now has hit safely in 20 straight games. Cobb completely overshadowed the Brownies' performance.

During nine innings of heavy-hitting baseball, Tyrus Raymond Cobb, manager of the Detroit Tigers, and one major leaguer record and another modern major leaguer mark. For a starter, Cobb made a perfect day at the bat. He made six hits in six attempts. Three of these were four-runners, tying the major league record, jointly held by Ken Williams, George Kelly, Cy Williams and Cobb. Cobb's average of .350 in the majors.

Three safeties for Tyrus were the total of 16 bases, a new major league mark, and a new record for a single game. Cobb's record of 17. The old major league mark for a single game was 12 established by Ed Barry, the former Washington member in a contest played June 1, 1915. Bobby Lowe hit for 17 bases in a game May 20, 1894.

Miss Collett and Partner Victory in English Golf Handicap Tourney.

ST. ANNE'S, England, May 6.—Miss Collett, American star, and her partner, Mrs. A. MacBeth, conceding their opponents 10 strokes, beat Mrs. T. Miller and Mrs. E. S. Galloway and one this morning in the ladies' Northern foursomes competition.

In their next match Miss Collett and Mrs. MacBeth defeated Mrs. B. Marland and Miss P. Foden. St. Anne's gave up and three play. The winners played a steady golf for the most part, but had little difficulty in defeating their opponents, although the latter had a concession of 11 strokes.

Wayward yesterday, the play proceeded through intermittent showers with constantly changing winds.

Late in the afternoon, after yesterday's play ended, Miss Collett played a practice round, and a small gallery braved the showers to follow her. She went around 80.

The American girl and all well wishers are disappointed at the lack of the draw for the women's champion at Troon, which is expected to be the second round of the championship. Miss Collett, who had hoped to meet earlier than the semifinals.

HORNSBY'S ANSWERS

Three strikes are on the batter. Catcher fumbles the third strike and the ball rolls behind him and is lost in the grass. The batter continues on his way and is half way to second base when the umpire calls him back to first, saying it was a passed ball. "Could the umpire do that?"—S.

To Baseball Queries

Not legally unless there were ground rule.

(1) Two out, a runner on base. Runner is put out with count two strikes and two balls on the batter. Does the batter bat next inning and if so does he start out with the count against him? (2) Runner on second base. Batter hits foul ball. Runner tries to get back but second baseman receives the ball and tags him. The batter is in his box at the time. Is runner out?—Kimmick, Mo.

The batter leads off next inning with a clean slate.

(2) The runner may not be put out on his way back to the base. The batter's presence in his box does not affect the play.

Pitcher throws a slow ball. Batter jumps in front of it and is hit. He declares he is entitled to his base for being hit by a pitched ball. Is he?—Fred Elchman.

When a runner is hit by a pitched ball for last out in an inning, how should the batter be scored? How many runs would be scored?—M. L. Phillips, New Madrid, Mo.

The batter is credited with a base hit under Rule 55, which says: "In all cases where a batter is retired by being hit by a pitched ball, unless he is himself hit, the batsman should be credited with a base hit."

Runner on first and second. Both start to advance and the runner on first is tagged out. The runner on second is not tagged out. Is he out?—M. L. Phillips, New Madrid, Mo.

No. There was no force out on any base and the runners had to be tagged with the ball. There can be no force out at base until the batter starts one.

SISLER BATTING .421; HITS SAFELY IN 23 CONSECUTIVE GAMES

G BORGES SISLER'S speed enabled him to make his first safety yesterday and run his string to 23 consecutive games in which he has hit safely this year.

In the third he sent a roller towards short, and by great speed and a fine slide he beat the throw to first. Sisler was given another hit during the day, only because of lenient scoring. In the fifth he sent a line drive towards center. Cobb got in front of the ball, got both hands on it, and then dropped it, but Sisler was credited with a swat.

Sisler has now made 37 hits in 88 trips to the plate this season, for an average of .421.

Jacobson's home run in the first was a real hit. It came with two on and landed high in the bleachers, was caught by Jacobson and another hit, a single during the Browns' four-run rally in the fifth.

A fast double play pulled Gaston out of a tight position in the sixth with but one run scored against him. With three on, Jones hit to Robertson. The third baseman threw to Rezo forced Cobb at the plate, while Tony's fast home to Sisler doubled Jones. In the ninth, Cobb tested Rezo's throwing arm, but was an easy victim trying to piff third.

Dutch Leonard, one of the star southpaws of the A. L., some of the best given a warm reception. The Browns found him for 10 hits in 4-13 innings. Even after that punishing Leonard was credited with the victory. Bush was charged with the defeat.

The third clash of the series will be played this afternoon. The fourth and final will be played tomorrow.

Cardinals and Pirates Halted By Bad Weather

Babe Adams and Flint Rhem Scheduled to Pitch if Sun Shines Tomorrow.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 6.—Rain and cold weather, which has camped on the trail of both Cardinals and Pirates, again put a quietus to the affairs of those two clubs today. It had been intended, according to the schedule makers for the Ricketys to make their initial bow in Pittsburgh yesterday, but the man who manipulates the weather opened the floodgates and consequently Forbes Field was too slippery for a contest. Today's contest was called off shortly after noon because of rain.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Sid Terris was awarded the decision over Johnny Dundee last night in the boxing bout that spells "Taps" for Madison Square Garden.

At the end of 12 rounds the judges decided that Terris had triumphed, though in my humble opinion Dundee fairly outpointed the dashing youth from the East Side.

Perhaps it was sympathy or admiration for this remarkable little warrior that makes me think that Dundee had a bit the better of it, but if that be so, then I wasn't alone in my judgment.

The crowd made vigorous and noisy objection to the verdict and hooted long and loud. It was a great battle of wits. I believe that Dundee boxed like a whirlwind, yet he was made to miss a lot. All in all, it was a masterful exhibition, a fitting climax to old Madison Square Garden.

Sergeant John F. Mullins of the Fighting Sixty-ninth crawled into the ring at the termination of the bouts and blew taps on a bugle that has seen real fighting. The beauty of Mullins' martial notes, that sang the ancient show place to oblivion, were somewhat drowned by the roars of the Dundee supporters who still voiced their disapproval of the decision.

They say they're going to take the building proper, piece by piece, to Philadelphia and rebuild it.

Dundee got one of the greatest and most prolonged receptions I ever heard accorded a boxer, following Joe Humphrey's touching good-bye speech to the old Garden. Terris, too, got a great hand. The weights were announced as Dundee, 128½, and Terris, 131½.

MRS. GARWOOD SETS NEW ALL-EVENTS MARK IN WOMEN'S TOURNAMENT

By the Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, O., May 6.—Crashing the pins for 1500, a new association record, Mrs. Grace Garwood, Cleveland, assumed the lead in the all-events of the Women's National Bowling Association tournament here yesterday, displacing Mrs. A. Weiler of Chicago, whose 1589 established the previous record last week. This was the only change among the leaders.

Mrs. Garwood and Mrs. L. Demaline, Cleveland, took second place in doubles with 1167, 12 pins behind M. Baker and M. Ebert of Chicago. Mrs. Garwood scored 583 in this event, 14 in singles and 233 in her five-woman event.

The high score of out-of-town bowlers was 1022 by E. Zerah and A. Rokes, St. Paul.

Mrs. J. Marx, Cleveland, was high in the singles, her 571 placing her in 24th position. Mrs. E. Reich, Chicago, leads with 622.

A fast double play pulled Gaston out of a tight position in the sixth with but one run scored against him. With three on, Jones hit to Robertson. The third baseman threw to Rezo forced Cobb at the plate, while Tony's fast home to Sisler doubled Jones. In the ninth, Cobb tested Rezo's throwing arm, but was an easy victim trying to piff third.

CHAPTER 47.

Cullam Takes Up His Role.

ESPIE their mellow mood Mariana's guests could not but sense some serious undertone in the meeting of Cullam and Jarvis. They felt that the drama arranged for their amusement.

But nothing happened. Jarvis cut short Mariana's introduction with a curt:

"I have met Cullam before," he said, "and I am sure you have. He is a very nice fellow, but I don't know him. Mariana, I have never mentioned Doris and the faithful Old Dog Tray."

There was malice in the link of her sister's and Jarvis's names. Mariana hoped to give the impression that Doris and Dick Jarvis were as good as affianced. She did not want to be deliberately untruthful, but she was distinctly displeased by the turn events had taken. Why was Craig Cullam looking so steeled and implacable? Why was Dick Jarvis glowering?

Why was Doris flushed and pale? Why was Mariana so jealous of the first time in her life? Jarvis drew Doris aside. "How did this boulder happen to horn into Mariana's house party?"

Doris could have slain him, her own bewilderment and surprise drove her to smile brilliantly at him and answer sweetly:

"I'm dying to know myself. I asked Mariana first chance I got. She said Mr. Cullam has known Mariana and Charles for a long time."

"Devilish, queer he never mentioned it to you!" muttered Jarvis suspiciously. "There's a nigger in the wood pile somewhere, my word for it!"

"How clever you are, Dick," Doris murmured absently, her eyes unconsciously watching Cullam. The young actor had turned himself with an effort from a leaden despair which seemed to be crushing him. Before him was the ghastly realization that his performance was only one-fourth done. He must, in the name of friendship, go through with it. Until he saw disgust and loathing in Mariana's eyes, until he saw beyond the shadow of a doubt that her infatuation for him was never killed, he must continue the role of a tipsy rone, the man which he knew would take him in one inexorable sweep.

Doris, the girl he loved, his heart were already heaped with the friendship of a sacred promise to sacrifice them there. A man could release him from that man's obligation and that man's trust, but he could not release him from the affection and his promises.

A tortured heart cried out for a step a price to friendship. But he knew he could pay it. He could do anything else. He hoped—even while adding himself that he was a selfish and unfeeling man—that she would understand.

There was only one thing that told nothing of the current in the meeting of Cullam and Jarvis. They felt that the drama arranged for their amusement.

But nothing happened. Jarvis cut short Mariana's introduction with a curt:

"I have met Cullam before," he said, "and I am sure you have. He is a very nice fellow, but I don't know him. Mariana, I have never mentioned Doris and the faithful Old Dog Tray."

Jarvis drew Doris aside. "How did this boulder happen to horn into Mariana's house party?"

Timmy Saves Her Babies

'Tis not of self a mother thinks. And so from danger seldom shrinks. —Old Mother Nature.

MRS GROUSE was not the only one who had made a home in the Green Forest on the other side of the old road. Even before Mrs. Grouse had moved over there, Timmy the Flying Squirrel and Mrs. Timmy had chosen to make their home there, and for very much the same reason. They wanted to be where there was likely to be less danger while their family was growing up.

So in an old home of Drummer the Woodpecker, quite high up in a dead tree, they had made their home and there their babies had been born, four of them. How little Mrs. Timmy did love them! She was sure that never in all the Great World had there ever been such wonderful babies before. Being naturally timid you can guess how she worried over those babies. She couldn't bear to leave them even long enough to get food, and always she hurried back sure that something had happened to them while she was away.

But nothing did happen, and the babies grew as is the way with babies of all kinds. And Mrs. Timmy's love for and pride in them grew as is the way with all mothers. It wouldn't be long now before they would be out trying their first jumps in the Great World. How Mrs. Timmy did dread that time! She couldn't bear to think of it.

One evening, just as the Black Shadows came creeping through the Green Forest, the beginning of the dark time, the safe time for the timid little people like a Flying Squirrel or a Wood Mouse, Mrs. Timmy poked her head out of the little round doorway of her house, preparing to start out to look for something to eat. Something made her nose and mouth smart and sting. She scrambled out and right away her big, soft eyes began to smart and fill with water. Smoke, choking, smarting smoke filled all the air. In the distance, and not such a great distance, there was a red glare. One good look Mrs. Timmy took and then darted into her house.

When she came out a few seconds later Mrs. Timmy had a baby in her mouth, holding him by the skin of the neck as you have seen a mother Cat carry her kittens. She jumped and sailed down on a long slant as only a Flying Squirrel can sail. But though she did her best she did not make as long a jump as usual. She couldn't with that precious baby to carry. Along the ground she carried the baby for a short distance, but this was too slow, and climbing another tree she once more jumped.

At last she dropped the baby in an old nest in another hollow tree and hurried back for another baby. The smoke was thicker now and it was harder to breathe. But the little mother thought only of her babies and picking up another she hurried out and made the first long jump. By the time this one was safely in the old nest with the first one she was very tired. The Red Terror was much nearer her home. Never in all her life had she been filled with such fear. But stronger than the fear was mother love, and back she went and got a third baby.

By the time this one was safely with the others the Red Terror was so near her home that it didn't seem possible that she could reach it without being burned to death. But she did. Yes, sir, she did! The last of the babies was in the doorway and without stopping an instant she seized this one and was off again. The heat was so great and she was so tired that it seemed as if she must drop and give up to the Red Terror. But she didn't, and she didn't let go of that precious baby. And so at last she reached the others.

NEW INVENTIONS.

An electric siren that can be heard above city noises for three miles has been installed by a Philadelphia prison to sound an alarm when an inmate escapes.

Complete camping equipment for two persons, including tent, bedding, stoves and cooking utensils, has been designed that can be packed in a bag and carried on the rear of an automobile.

The average young woman is three times as healthy as she used to be, according to tests just completed at Barnard College.

Making Sure of Skin Beauty Despite Vagaries of Weather

By LUCREZIA BORI

Famous Spanish Prima Donna

SPRING brings its special beauty problems, just as every other season does.

Perhaps the spring problems are more vital. For one thing, new clothes and the freshness of everything out of doors makes all of us want to look more beautiful—we want to be more beautiful even than in the winter.

Then, too, spring brings winds which may harm our complexions even when we are wishing to look our best, to feel up to the new spring attire that we have acquired.

Now there's no need in spending precious time worrying, for this only brings lines and a care-worn expression to your face. The only mistake of applying powder when their faces are not fresh and clean. Rubbing on powder over pores which are already slightly stopped up with dust particles only serves to rub the dust particles into your skin and to clog the pores still more. This is very harmful to your complexion.

Even if you work in an office all day, it is a simple matter to manage to have your face thoroughly clean before you powder it. Take along a tube of good cleansing cream. Keep this in your desk, along with a good supply of tissue paper for removing the dust. Now when you prepare to go out, cleanse your face with a light coating of the cream. Rub it off with the dainty tissue squares, then add your powder. The powder will stick better after the cream has been removed, for the skin is left slightly moist from the cream. This is an excellent way to protect your skin from wind and bright sunlight.

At night before you go to bed, give your face a very thorough cold-creaming. This will cleanse it from any collection of the day's dust and leave your pores free and open to breathe. Another good springtime precaution is to wear a small hat that fits close to your head. This will keep your hair from being blown, whether it is long or short hair. Then, too, if you are motoring, or if you simply want to look very neat when you are not motoring, you can add a light veil, one with delicate mesh which hardly shows, and which enhances the beauty of your skin. Most complexions appear most alluring beneath a thin veil, and at the same time the veil keeps the small hat in place, and its owner in a better temper during a high wind.

Having done all you can to insure your face from chapping, do not forget to carry a small bit of lip pomade with you, to keep your lips as smooth and lovely as your face.

The QUEEN OF SWEDEN

How her priceless doilies were restored to loveliness after having been despaired of . . .

"THERE had been a state dinner at the home of the Marshal of the Court of Sweden.

"The following day when I happened to be with the wife of the Court Marshal, one of her maids came into the room holding some priceless doilies of cobweb fineness—sadly soiled. Her Ladyship told me the doilies had been lent her for the dinner by one of the Ladies-in-Waiting to the Queen. She probably would have to return them personally with apologies!

"Here I interrupted: 'If you don't mind I would like to save the situation' (confident that I could safely depend on my good friend Lux). The precious lace doilies were handed over to me. When the little things had dried I examined them and indeed, I felt proud. I could see no trace of soil whatever!"

Don't trust Monday's Laundry to harsh soap any longer . .

Your hands ~ too ~ deserve the kindest treatment

Week after week—it's the repeated washings that are so hard on your clothes. Ordinary laundry soap soon weakens cotton and linen fibres, then your clothes wear thin in spots and cuff edges fray.

Nowadays all your things deserve to be treated like fine fabrics—they're so much more costly and so much nicer than a few years ago! Now into sparkling Lux suds, magically cleansing, all your things must go.

How wonderfully your clothes and house linens respond to their Lux washing—you never saw them look sweeter, fresher, you never supposed they could last so long! Lux saves your hands too—keeps them soft and smooth—such a relief after harsh soap!

And such a little Lux does the whole laundry! Such piles of sparkling clean clothes come out of those rich abundant suds.

Washing Dishes need not make your hands rough and red

WHY DOES DISHWASHING make your hands rough and red? It's because the alkali in ordinary kitchen soap dries up nature's beautifying oils. Drop a teaspoonful of Lux into the dishpan. See how soft and smooth and white it keeps your hands! Extravagant? Not at all. A single teaspoonful is enough. Now you wouldn't think of washing dishes any other way!

A little Lux goes so far it's an economy to use it

GOING AND COMING.

GOOD morrow, merry customers, I hope you're feeling well. For, what the morrow may bring forth, no mortal here can tell;

So watch your step intently as your wary way you pick,

For, the Flivver Man'll git you if

You Don't Jump
Quick!

And, if you dodge the flivvers
and in safety reach your home,
Be vigilant and careful when at night abroad you roam;
You're taking many chances and
there isn't any doubt That the Stick-up Man'll git you somebody who will invent something that will take the kinks out of our permanent crime wave.

There must be a market for the myriad magazines being published in view of which one wonders how anybody finds time to dance.

TOO TRUE

Yet, the cabarets, the picture shows and other amusements seem to be getting their share of the business. After deducting eight hours for work, old Brier Morpheus must have to hustle to get his quota of the remaining 16 hours.

An inward garter, we take it, is an infection peculiar to rubber necks.

ARMY CO-OPERATES IN EXPERIMENT

Greater. Portion of Trip

By the Associated Press. —
NEW YORK, May 7.—Photographs, transmitted through the air most of the way, traveled 5660
miles over land and sea, today, completing a history-making journey from Honolulu to New York
in 26 minutes.

Seven pictures of persons and events concerned in the sham warfare that the United States Army and Navy have been carrying on near Hawaii were transmitted in the series of experiments. Twenty minutes after the negative of each picture had been placed in the transmitting apparatus at Honolulu, the completed picture was in New York.

Radio Officials Elated.
The experiments were conducted by the Radio Corporation of America, with the co-operation of the army. Radio officials declared they were elated with the achievement.

Those in charge of the tests also pronounced the transmission a great success from the point of view of accuracy, asserting that excellent reproductions had been ob-

The pictures transmitted included portraits of Major-General John E. Hines, U. S. A., and Rear Admiral Robert E. Coontz, U. S. N., who wer umpires in the war maneuvers; Gov. Wallace H. Farrington of Hawaii, Mayor Wilson of Honolulu, and three "action" pictures of "war game" scenes; the flagship Seattle of the attacking fleet, army troops on at Honolulu, a distance of 29 miles. At Kahuku, the pictures took the air for a 2575-mile atmospheric ride to Marshall, Cal., from where they took a short wire flight to the company's Bolinas Bay station, where they again were wirelessly making a 2640-mile flight to Riverhead, Long Island. From Riverhead, the pictures were transmitted by telegraph wires 76 miles to the Radio company's offices in New York.
